BANK OF AMERICA, N.A.,

Plaintiff(s),

v.

TRAVATA AND MONTAGE AT SUMMERLIN CENTRE HOMEOWNERS
ASSOCIATION, et al.,

Defendant(s).

Case No. 2:16-CV-473 JCM (VCF)

ORDER

Presently before the court is defendant Travata and Montage at Summerlin Centre Homeowners' Association's (the "HOA") motion to dismiss. (ECF No. 18). Plaintiff Bank of America, N.A. ("BANA") filed a response (ECF No. 27), and defendant filed a reply (ECF No. 32).

I. Introduction

This case involves the events leading up to, and including, the March 28, 2014, non-judicial foreclosure sale of the real property located at 11339 Colinward Avenue, Las Vegas, Nevada. (ECF No. 1).

Plaintiff's complaint alleges the following claims against the instant defendant: (1) quiet title/declaratory judgment; (2) breach of Nevada Revised Statute ("NRS") 116.1113's obligation of good faith; and (3) wrongful foreclosure. (Id.). Here, defendant's motion seeks to dismiss plaintiff's claims directed at it for failure to comply with NRS 38.310's mediation requirement and for failure to state a claim. (ECF No. 18).

II. Legal Standard

The court may dismiss a plaintiff's complaint for "failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted." Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(6). A properly pled complaint must provide "[a] short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief." Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(a)(2).

1 Although rule 8 does not require detailed factual allegations, it does require more than labels and 2 conclusions. Bell Atl. Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 555 (2007). Furthermore, a formulaic
 3 recitation of the elements of a cause of action will not suffice. Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662, 4 677 (2009) (citation omitted). Rule 8 does not unlock the doors of discovery for a plaintiff armed 5 with nothing more than conclusions. Id. at 678–79.

6 To survive a motion to dismiss, a complaint must contain sufficient factual matter to “state 7 a claim to relief that is plausible on its face.” Id. A claim has facial plausibility when the plaintiff 8 pleads factual content that allows the court to draw the reasonable inference that the defendant is 9 liable for the misconduct alleged. Id. When a complaint pleads facts that are merely consistent 10 with a defendant’s liability, and shows only a mere possibility of entitlement, the complaint does 11 not meet the requirements to show plausibility of entitlement to relief. Id.

12 In Iqbal, the Supreme Court clarified the two-step approach district courts are to apply 13 when considering a motion to dismiss. Id. First, the court must accept as true all of the allegations 14 contained in a complaint. However, this requirement is inapplicable to legal conclusions. Id.
 15 Second, only a complaint that states a plausible claim for relief survives a motion to dismiss. Id.
 16 at 678. Where the complaint does not permit the court to infer more than the mere possibility of 17 misconduct, the complaint has “alleged – but not shown – that the pleader is entitled to relief.” Id.
 18 at 679. When the allegations in a complaint have not crossed the line from conceivable to 19 plausible, plaintiff’s claim must be dismissed. Twombly, 550 U.S. at 570.

20 The Ninth Circuit addressed post-Iqbal pleading standards in Starr v. Baca, 652 F.3d 1202, 21 1216 (9th Cir. 2011). The Starr court held:

22 First, to be entitled to the presumption of truth, allegations in a complaint or 23 counterclaim may not simply recite the elements of a cause of action, but must 24 contain sufficient allegations of underlying facts to give fair notice and to enable 25 the opposing party to defend itself effectively. Second, the factual allegations that 26 are taken as true must plausibly suggest an entitlement to relief, such that it is not 27 unfair to require the opposing party to be subjected to the expense of discovery and 28 continued litigation.

1 III. Discussion

2 a. Mediation requirement

3 Section 38.310 of the NRS provides, in relevant part:

4 No civil action based upon a claim relating to [t]he interpretation, application or 5 enforcement of any covenants, conditions or restrictions applicable to residential 6 property . . . or [t]he procedures used for increasing, decreasing or imposing 7 additional assessments upon residential property, may be commenced in any court 8 in this State unless the action has been submitted to mediation.

9 Nev. Rev. Stat. § 38.310(1). Subsection (2) continues, mandating that a “court shall dismiss any 10 civil action which is commenced in violation of the provisions of subsection 1.” Nev. Rev. Stat.
11 § 38.310(2).

12 Subsection (1) of NRS 38.330 states that “[u]nless otherwise provided by an agreement of 13 the parties, mediation must be completed within 60 days after the filing of the written claim.” Nev.
14 Rev. Stat. § 38.330(1). However, while NRS 38.330(1) explains the procedure for mediation, NRS 15 38.310 is clear that no civil action may be commenced “unless the action has been submitted to 16 mediation.” Nev. Rev. Stat. § 38.310. Specifically, NRS 38.330(1) offers in relevant part:

17 If the parties participate in mediation and an agreement is not obtained, any party 18 may commence a civil action in the proper court concerning the claim that was 19 submitted to mediation. Any complaint filed in such an action must contain a 20 sworn statement indicating that the issues addressed in the complaint have 21 been mediated pursuant to the provisions of NRS 38.300 to 38.360, inclusive, but 22 an agreement was not obtained.

23 Nev. Rev. Stat. § 38.330(1) (emphasis added). Moreover, nothing in NRS 38.330 provides that 24 the Nevada Real Estate Division’s (“NRED”) failure to appoint a mediator within 60 days 25 constitutes exhaustion, nor does the statute place the burden on NRED to complete mediation 26 within a specified period of time.

27 There is no indication in this case that the NRED mediation has been completed. Thus, 28 unless NRED appoints a mediator or the parties agree on one, plaintiff’s claims—those that are 29 subject to NRS 38.310—are unexhausted under state law.¹ This court now considers this statutory 30 scheme’s applicability to the instant claims challenged by defendant’s motion.

31 . . .

32 ¹ The statute of limitations for any claim submitted to NRED for mediation is tolled until 33 the conclusion of mediation. See Nev. Rev. Stat. § 38.350.

1 b. Claim to quiet title

2 As an initial matter, a claim to quiet title is not a civil action under NRS 38.300(3), which 3 states: “The term does not include an action in equity for injunctive relief in which there is an 4 immediate threat of irreparable harm, or an action relating to the title to residential property.” See,
 5 e.g., U.S. Bank, Nat. Ass’n v. NV Eagles, LLC, No. 2:15-CV-00786-RCJ-PAL, 2015 WL 4475517,
 6 at *3 (D. Nev. July 21, 2015) (finding that a lender’s claim seeking both quiet title and declaratory 7 relief was exempt from the mediation requirement of NRS 38.310); see also McKnight Family, 8 L.L.P. v. Adept Mgmt., 310 P.3d 555, 559 (Nev. 2013). Therefore, HOA’s argument for dismissal
 9 of this claim fails because NRS 38.310’s exhaustion requirement does not apply to a claim to quiet 10 title.

11 Defendant next challenges this claim by asserting that the quiet title/declaratory relief claim 12 did not violate plaintiff’s right to procedural due process. (ECF No. 18). Here, plaintiff had actual 13 notice of the risk of foreclosure proceedings, evinced by the complaint’s allegation that “[o]n 14 October 29, 2013, BANA requested a ledger from Travata, through its agent [Nevada Association 15 Services, Inc. (“NAS”)], identifying the super-priority amount allegedly owed Travata.” (ECF 16 No. 1 at 5). Accordingly, the Ninth Circuit’s decision in Bourne Valley Court Trust v. Wells Fargo 17 Bank, NA, 832 F.3d 1154 (9th Cir. 2016) (holding that NRS chapter 116’s “opt-in” notice scheme 18 was facially unconstitutional), does not apply to this case.

19 Next, defendant states that the Supremacy Clause of the United States Constitution is not 20 violated by the non-judicial foreclosure sale. (ECF No. 18). In its complaint, plaintiff alleges that 21 “[t]he note and the senior deed of trust are insured by the Federal Housing Administration (FHA).” 22 (ECF No. 1 at 4) (emphasis removed). Additionally, plaintiff asserts that “[t]he senior deed of 23 trust is insured pursuant to Single Family Mortgage Insurance Program.” (ECF No. 1 at 9).

24 Under the Property Clause of the United States Constitution, only “Congress shall have the 25 power to dispose of and make all needful rules and regulations respecting the territory or other 26 property belonging to the United States” U.S. Const. Art. IV, § 3, cl. 2. The Supremacy 27 Clause provides that the “Constitution . . . shall be the supreme law of the land” U.S. Const.
 28 Art. VI, cl. 2. “State legislation must yield under the Supremacy Clause of the Constitution to the interests of the federal government when the legislation as applied interferes with the federal purpose or operates to impede or condition the implementation of federal policies and programs.”
Rust v. Johnson, 597 F.2d 174, 179 (9th Cir. 1979).

1 In Rust, the Ninth Circuit held that a city's foreclosure on property insured by the Federal 2 National Mortgage Association was invalid under the Supremacy Clause. The court reasoned that 3 upholding the sale "would run the risk of substantially impairing the Government's participation 4 in the home mortgage market and of defeating the purpose of the National Housing Act." Id.

5 On this basis, courts consistently apply federal law, ignoring conflicting state law, when 6 determining rights related to federally owned and insured loans. United States v. Stadium
 7 Apartments, Inc., 425 F.2d 358, 362 (9th Cir. 1970) (holding that federal law applies to FHA-8 insured mortgages "to assure the protection of the federal program against loss, state law to the 9 contrary notwithstanding"); see also United States v. Victory Highway Vill., Inc., 662 F.2d 488, 10 497 (8th Cir. 1981) (citing Ninth Circuit case law) ("We note that federal law, not [state] law, 11 governs the rights and liabilities of the parties in cases dealing with the remedies available upon 12 default of a federally held or insured loan."). Foreclosure on federal property is prohibited where 13 it interferes with the statutory mission of a federal agency. See United States v. Lewis Cnty., 175 14 F.3d 671, 678 (9th Cir. 1999) (holding that the state could not foreclose on federal Farm Service Agency property for non-payment of taxes).

15 Indeed, federal district courts in this circuit have set aside HOA foreclosure sales on 16 property and supremacy clause grounds in cases involving federally insured loans. Saticoy Bay
 17 LLC, Series 7342 Tanglewood Park v. SRMOF II 2012-1 Trust, No. 2:13-cv-1199-JCM-VCF, 18 2015 WL 1990076, at *1 (D. Nev. Apr. 30, 2015); see also Sec'y of Hous. & Urban Dev. v. Sky 19 Meadow Ass'n, 117 F. Supp. 2d 970, 982 (C.D. Cal. 2000) (voiding HOA's non-judicial 20 foreclosure on HUD property, quieting title in HUD's favor based on property and supremacy 21 clauses); Yunis v. United States, 118 F. Supp. 2d 1024, 1027, 1036 (C.D. Cal. 2000) (voiding 22 HOA's non-judicial foreclosure sale of property purchased under veteran's association home loan 23 guarantee program); Wash. & Sandhill Homeowners Ass'n v. Bank of Am., N.A., No. 2:13-cv-24 01845-GMN-GWF, 2014 WL 4798565, at *6 (D. Nev. Sept. 25, 2014) (holding that property and supremacy clauses barred foreclosure sale where mortgage interest was federally insured).

25 The single-family mortgage insurance program allows FHA to insure private loans, 26 expanding the availability of mortgages to low-income individuals wishing to purchase homes.
 27 See Sky Meadow Ass'n, 117 F. Supp. 2d at 980–81 (discussing program); Wash. & Sandhill 28 Homeowners Ass'n, 2014 WL 4798565, at *1 n.2 (same). If a borrower under this program defaults, the lender may foreclose on the property, convey title to HUD, and submit an insurance

1 claim. 24 C.F.R. 203.355. HUD's property disposition program generates funds to finance the 2 program. See 24 C.F.R. § 291.1.

3 Allowing an HOA foreclosure to wipe out a first deed of trust on a federally-insured
 4 property thus interferes with the purposes of the FHA insurance program. Specifically, it hinders 5 HUD's ability to recoup funds from insured properties.

6 However, the claim to quiet title is not directed at FHA. (ECF No. 1). Plaintiff has offered 7 no reason why it has standing to assert these federal interests and similarly provides no allegation 8 in its complaint explaining the same. Accordingly, this basis for the claim for quiet title is 9 unfounded.

10 Additionally, defendant attacks the claim for quiet title by positing that plaintiff has failed 11 to establish superiority of title. (ECF No. 18). The court finds the content of this argument to 12 unelaborated; there is insufficient evidence of the facts of the current case to show how plaintiff's 13 various allegations under this particular cause of action fail to state a claim. Iqbal, 556 U.S. at 14 678–79. Alternatively, defendant requests this court to adjudicate the fundamental question in this 15 case in the present motion to dismiss, which this court declines to do. See (ECF No. 18).
 16 Therefore, plaintiff's "additional reasons" section of this claim sufficiently alleges facts that 17 surmount a motion to dismiss. (ECF No. 1 at 10).

18 Finally, defendant's assertion that plaintiff does not have standing to challenge a 19 bankruptcy proceeding's automatic stay is unpersuasive based upon the cases presented to the 20 court. The first case offered, In re Demas Wai Yan, No. ADV NC-08-03166, 2015 WL 845570, 21 at *2 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. Feb. 26, 2015), is unpublished, and In re Pecan Groves of Arizona, 951 F.2d 22 242, 245 (9th Cir. 1991) ("Allowing unsecured creditors to pursue claims the trustee abandons 23 could subvert the trustee's powers." (emphasis added)), is factually distinguishable from the 24 present case because of the interest at issue. See In re Popp, 323 B.R. 260, 267 (B.A.P. 9th Cir.
 25 2005) (distinguishing In re Pecan Groves from "the question of whether a lien holder has standing 26 to object to an unauthorized sale of the property that serves as collateral for his lien."). Thus, 27 defendant's argument as to this claim fails.

28 c. Bad faith

Here, plaintiff alleges the following regarding its claim for relief under NRS 116.1113:

If it is determined Travata's sale extinguished the senior deed of trust notwithstanding the deficiencies, violations, and improper actions described herein, Travata's and its agent NAS' breach of its obligation of good faith will cause

1 BANA to suffer general and special damages in the amount equal to the fair market 2 value of the property or the unpaid principal balance of the loan at issue, plus 3 interest, at the time of the HOA sale, whichever is greater.

4 (ECF No. 1 at 12).

5 Therefore, this claim is a “civil action” under NRS 38.300 due to its pursuit of money 6 damages and is thus subject to mediation under NRS 38.310. See Nev. Rev. Stat. § 38.300; 7 McKnight Family, L.L.P., 310 P.3d at 558.

8 d. Wrongful Foreclosure

9 “A wrongful foreclosure claim challenges the authority behind the foreclosure, not the 10 foreclosure act itself.” McKnight Family, L.L.P., 310 P.3d at 559 (citing Collins v. Union Fed.
 11 Sav. & Loan, 662 P.2d 610, 623 (Nev. 1983)). “The material issue in a wrongful foreclosure claim 12 is whether ‘the trustor was in default when the power of sale was exercised.’” Turbay v. Bank of 13 Am., N.A., No. 2:12–CV–1367–JCM–PAL; 2013 WL 1145212, at *4 (quoting Collins, 662 P.2d 14 at 623). “Deciding a wrongful foreclosure claim against a homeowners’ association involves 15 interpreting covenants, conditions or restrictions applicable to residential property.” McKnight 16 Family, L.L.P., 310 P.3d at 559. “This type of interpretation falls under NRS 38.310.” Id.
 17 Additionally, NRS 38.310 applies to laws “contain[ing] conditions and restrictions applicable to 18 residential property.” Id. at 558. Therefore, this claim must be mediated before this court may 19 delve into its merits.

20 e. Attorneys’ fees

21 Lastly, defendant argues that plaintiff’s requests for attorneys’ fees should be denied because 22 they are “special damages.” (ECF No. 18 at 14). The court acknowledges that the last page of the 23 complaint asks for “[r]easonable attorneys’ fees as special damages and the costs of suit.” (ECF 24 No. 1 at 15). Additionally, Horgan v. Felton, 170 P.3d 982, 983 (Nev. 2007), offers the rule that 25 “in cases concerning title to real property, attorney fees are only allowable as special damages in 26 slander of title actions, not merely when a cloud on the title to real property exists.” 170 P.3d at 27 983 (emphasis added). Clearly, this case involves title to real property. See (ECF No. 1) (involving 28 a quiet-title claim). The Nevada Supreme Court, in Horgan, also stated that “attorney fees are [generally] not recoverable absent a statute, rule, or contractual provision to the contrary.”
Horgan, 170 P.3d at 986. Indeed, plaintiff’s complaint does not otherwise indicate the grounds

1 for its request for attorneys' fees. See (ECF No. 1). Therefore, plaintiff may not request attorneys' 2 fees as special damages in the complaint's current form.

3 IV. Conclusion

4 In light of the foregoing, defendant's motion to dismiss the complaint fails as to the claim 5 of quiet title but succeeds with respect to plaintiff's claims regarding NRS 116.1113 and wrongful 6 foreclosure as well as plaintiff's request for special damages of attorneys' fees.

7 Accordingly,

8 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED that defendant Travata and 9 Montage at Summerlin Centre Homeowners' Association's motion to dismiss (ECF No. 18) be, 10 and the same hereby is, GRANTED IN PART and DENIED IN PART, consistent with the foregoing.
